- Maintain mise en place, ensuring all ingredients and tools are prepared, labeled, and organized before service.

2. Team Leadership & Development

- Guide and support junior cooks assigned to your station; provide coaching, feedback, and hands-on training.
- Lead by example in behavior, professionalism, punctuality, and work ethic.
- Promote strong communication and teamwork across all stations.
- Ensure staff follow kitchen rules, policies, and production standards.

3. Operational Responsibilities

- Support food cost control by following standardized recipes, portioning accurately, and minimizing waste.
- Ensure proper receiving, rotation (FIFO), labeling, and storage of all products.
- Maintain accurate inventory levels and communicate shortages promptly to leadership.
- Assist with banquet production, special events, and resort-wide functions as required.
- Maintain a clean, organized, and sanitized workstation at all times, including equipment, tools, shelves, coolers, and prep areas.
- Follow daily production lists and contribute to efficient workflow and station readiness.
- Adhere to schedules, station responsibilities, and all Living Water Resorts policies and procedures.

4. Health, Safety & Compliance

- Follow all Public Health regulations, Safe Food Handling standards, and WHMIS requirements.
- Maintain professional grooming and uniform standards daily.
- Use knives, ovens, fryers, chemicals, and hot equipment safely and responsibly.
- Model safe working practices for all team members and report safety hazards immediately.

5. Continuous Improvement

- Contribute ideas for improving menu items, recipes, efficiency, and overall guest experience.
- Support implementation of updated standards, procedures, and kitchen initiatives.
- Take ownership of station operations and demonstrate accountability for quality and consistency.

QUALIFICATIONS & REQUIREMENTS

- Culinary School diploma or completed apprenticeship (minimum 2 years)
