Job Details

I am a senior living in Edmonton, and I am looking for a dedicated caregiver to help me out around my home. I am hoping to find someone kind and reliable who is interested in a long-term role and can provide consistent support. My main goal is to keep my home safe, clean, and comfortable so I can continue to enjoy my daily life.

What you'll be doing:
- Planning and preparing healthy meals that fit my dietary needs and what I like to eat, while keeping food safety in mind.
- Spending time with me, having good conversations, joining me for walks, and helping me stay socially engaged.
- Helping me out with my daily routine, guiding me through light exercises, and giving me gentle medication reminders.
- Just keeping track of my general well-being and letting my family know right away if you notice any changes in my health or mood.

Job Description

What I am looking for:
- You must have previous experience caring for seniors.
- Good English skills are a must so we can easily chat and understand each other.
- No specific degree or formal education is required—I care much more about your experience and your character!
- You should be organized, pay attention to the little details, and feel comfortable working independently.
- Most importantly, I need someone who is trustworthy, reliable, and respects my privacy.
