Job Details

The Norris family is seeking an experienced and compassionate Caregiver to provide care for their twin children on full-time basis. The ideal candidate should have a calm, patient, and caring personality and be comfortable assisting children who require medical and developmental support.

The successful candidate will be responsible for the following duties:

1. Providing attentive care to the twins at the family's residence
2. Prepare and serve meals and snacks according to the children's prescribed schedules and diet.
3. Accompany the twins to preschool and safely pick them up following their scheduled activities.
4. Administer medications to the children in accordance with the parents' instructions and prescribed schedule.
5. Assist the twins with developmental activities, including practicing words, communication skills, walking, and other exercises recommended by their parents or healthcare providers.
6. Supervise and oversee the children's daily activities
7. Take children to the park
8. Maintain appropriate hygiene standards and assist the twins with bathing, dressing, and other personal-care routines as required.
9. Observe and report any changes in the children's health, behaviour, or developmental progress to the parents promptly.
10. Provide occasional assistance to the older children in the household, including helping prepare their lunches and supporting their daily routines, as required.

No live in requirements.

Wage: $29 hourly for 32 hours a week

Address of employment: Maple Ridge BC V2X2Z5
