Job Description

Food Service Supervisor

Qdoba is looking for a qualified career minded individual with an energetic and outgoing personality to be a leader on an established team. The Supervisor is responsible for managing overall operations of the entire restaurant. They are accountable for all aspects of food quality, cleanliness, labor, costs, and production. They must have a guest-centric attitude and must have a passion to develop their team with the same qualities.

Applicants must be strong communicators, possess a hands-on management style, ability to coach staff in the moment and have a passion for excellence. We are looking for candidates who want to grow with business and achieve the position of Restaurant Manager.

Supervisors report directly to the report to the Restaurant Manager. They are required to fulfill all duties associated with Management in the absence of the Restaurant Manager.
